

A WEAK STOMACH AFFECTS YOUR WHOLE BODY FROM TOP TO BOTTOM

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery

GIVES STRENGTH TO THE STOMACH, PURITY TO THE BLOOD, AND LIFE TO THE LUNGS.

It has been decided by a Paris court that the term "Freemason" is "an insulting and outrageous one."

"During the hot weather last summer I had a severe attack of cholera morbus, necessitating my leaving my business," says Mr. C. A. Hare, of Hare Bros., Cincinnati, Ohio. "After taking two or three doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I was completely relieved and in a few hours was able to resume my work in the store. I sincerely recommend it to any one afflicted with stomach or bowel trouble. For sale by R. C. Hardwick, Druggist."

It is believed that a diet of corn bread makes bigger men, physically, than bread made from wheat flour.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for years and always with good results," says Mr. W. B. Cooper of El Rio, Cal. "For small children we find it especially effective." For sale by R. C. Hardwick, Druggist.

A SCHEME FOR HUSBANDS.

How One Man Wiggles Through His Domestic Troubles.

"I have a simple scheme for wiggling out of my trouble when my wife catches me in a fib," said a perfect brute last evening to several congenial companions. "On such occasions it is a great mistake for a man to attempt any explanation. The thing to do is merely to assume an air of injured innocence. That attitude will puzzle a woman and shake her confidence in your guilt. She will begin unconsciously to cast about for some explanation, some theory, some clew to the mystery, and when she finds one, no matter how preposterous, she will be so pleased by her own cleverness that it is easy to persuade her to accept it out of hand. You see, I have reduced the thing to a science. To illustrate: I told my wife not long ago that I would be detained over my books until past midnight. After I left, some neighbors, confounded 'em, invited her to the theater, and during the last act she saw me, of course, with some of the boys in the parquette. When I got home there was an explosion. I said nothing. I simply looked at her sadly, wistfully, reproachfully. Next day there was another explosion. I resumed my tactics. That evening she said: 'Look here, Charley, I want you to tell me whether you really went to the theater to see Col. Hawkins.' Then I remembered suddenly that Hawkins was seated at my left, and also that she knew I had been trying to elose a large-sized business deal with him. In the goodness of her heart the dear girl had arrived at the conclusion that I must have gone to the show to clinch that contract. I smiled wanly. 'I would have thought, Mary,' I replied, with great gentleness, 'that something of the kind might have suggested itself to you before.' That was enough. She wept copiously. I was not a monster; I was a martyr. Eventually I forgave her upon her solemn promise never again to suspect me of an untruth. So you see how it is. If I had tried to explain I would doubtless have made a mess of it and planted lasting seeds of distrust. As it turned out, the episode redounds to my credit. It's a great thing to have brains, boys, when you're dealing with women."—N. O. Times-Democrat.

GETTING A PLACE.

A Suggestion for Young Men Just Starting Out in Life.

Almost every man who has succeeded in establishing himself in the business or professional world, is constantly applied to that he may use his influence to secure a position for this or that person, where he may have a chance to earn a livelihood or secure a foothold that may result in earning a livelihood. Every right-minded man is glad to render this service to those who are worthy; and in rendering it he frequently does the future employer as great a favor as the employee, for it is a substantial advantage to a business man to have trustworthy, intelligent and ambitious subordinates. But it is well to remind those who are in search of positions that their wisest course is to improve the first decent opportunity that offers to secure a foothold in the world of self-support. It does not make a very great difference where one starts. If the employee has the qualities that make him valuable the employer will discover it, or if he does not some other employer will. The most fatal obstacle to success is for the employee to render in service what he deems an exact equivalent for his wages, not to take an interest in his work and not to consult his employer's advantage. Such persons are very apt to find themselves out of a position, and they are the first to be discharged when economies are imperative. It is well to remember that the value of any position is not to be measured simply by the pay that goes with it, but by its opportunities for advancement, and by the chance that it may directly or indirectly bring the one who holds it into relation with larger and better things.—Boston Watchman.

To Read the Log.

A Swedish inventor has patented an addition to the log, by which its readings may be directly shown in the chartroom or conning tower. The instrument is connected by means of an electric cable to a contact mechanism giving a suitable number of contacts per mile to the part of the instrument that points out the distance on a dial graduated in miles. The instrument points out the miles exactly according to the taffrail log; it registers the miles per hour, and gives, if desired, a signal on an electric bell when a certain distance has been traveled.

PERU-NA'S VICTORY.

Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, O.
DEAR SIR:—I feel like a new woman since using your Peru-na.
Your medicine has helped me so much that I can work and never feel tired out. When I first began to use your medicine I couldn't sweep my own room, run the sewing machine or lift anything, not even a chair. It even hurt me to ride or walk any distance. Now I can do all this, and I believe more, and never feel the effects of it. I feel so proud of the way it has brought me out that I tell it far and near. I can heartily recommend your medicine to any woman suffering from female disease. I know from experience that your medicine will do just what you say it will. I thank you, Doctor, a thousand times for your treatment. I shall recommend your medicine wherever I go. I know what it has done for me and I know it will do the same for others. I feel that there are thousands of other women who would, after using your treatment, as I did, be thankful. I am so glad I got your treatment. This month is the first time in my life that I can remember of having my menses without pain. Why, I can't do anything but recommend Peru-na. Miss Emma L. Bolden, Wilberforce, O.
The Peru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O., will mail Dr. Hartman's special book for women, free on application, to women only. All druggists sell Peru-na.

"KISSING BUG"

On Her Lip When She Awakened—Husband Killed the Insect.

Lima, Ohio, July 5.—Early this morning Mrs. W. B. Cheney was awakened by a stinging sensation and in a few seconds her upper lip was swollen to twice its natural size. Mr. Cheney was aroused and succeeded in killing the "kissing bug" which inflicted the bite. It is about half an inch long, resembles a winged ant with a pointed bill turning downward and bent backward toward the body. Mrs. Cheney is suffering very greatly from the sting, but it is not thought there will be any serious results.

PLANT'S WILL.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee Reported to Have Been Left Half a Million.

Mobile, Ala., May 6.—Copies of La Lucha, a Havana newspaper, arriving here in to-day's mail, announce that the will of the late H. B. Plant bequeaths $500,000 to Gen. Fitzhugh Lee and $50,000 to Gen. Maximo Gomez.

Goebel Used no Liquor.

The editor of the Ewing Enquirer has this to say about Senator Goebel: "We desire to make a statement in justice to the man who has been so bitterly opposed by a few ministers in this county. At the headquarters of Wm. Goebel at the Galt House in Louisville during the late disgraceful meeting of the Democrats of the State, there was not a bottle, case, keg or barrel of whiskey, wine, beer or brandy in his rooms, nor was there a drunken man in his delegation from Kenton county, while there was an inexhaustible quantity, what was termed by those who used it 'the best' in all the rest of the headquarters we visited. We do not say this to injure another, nor as a slur at the party, for the Republican conventions are as disgraceful, but we speak of it to remind those who should be moral teachers that they must not too hastily judge."

Every one who was in Senator Goebel's headquarters can testify to the truth of the above statement. Nothing but ice water was to be had in his rooms.

The Goebel Bill.

People who denounce the Goebel election law are generally misled in their knowledge as to what the new law really is. It simply constitutes a State Board of three, whose duties are purely ministerial, to take the place of the old board, which was composed of three Republicans—the Governor, Attorney General and Secretary of State. The powers of the new board are not one whit greater than of the old board. Three men of different political parties perform the same functions for each county and have besides the appointment of election officers, who must be of different political parties—a result not assured under the old law.—Henderson Journal.
